

WORKSHOP

On 18 and 19 February 2011 a workshop on Choral Societies and Nationalist Mobilization in Nineteenth-Century Europe will be held in Antwerp co-jointly by NISE and SPIN, in cooperation with Artesis Hogeschool Antwerpen, Koor&Stem and the research unit Political History - Department of History - Antwerp University. The program and a registration form are now available. >>Read more

NETWORK

The network of heritage and/or research institutes with national/regional movements as (part of) their field of interest, has been steadily expanding. The following institutes became member over the last year: Fryske Akademy, Tresoar, Lietuvos istorijos institutas, Abertzaletasunaren Agiritegia, Centre for Advanced Study Sofia, Svenska Centralarkivet and Karjalan Tutkimuslaitos. This brings the total membership of the NISE network so far to eighteen. >>Read more

SCIENTIFIC COUNCIL

The Scientific Council (SC) has to reflect the topical and geographical diversity of the history of national and regional movements. In view of this fundamental guideline, the SC has over the last year been enlarged with the following academics: Peter Aronsson, Todor Cepreganov, Alexey Miller and Xosé-Manoel Núñez Seixas.
